

Cuba

Cruises Continue to Cuba!

Cruise ships have specifically been allowed to continue to call on Cuba. All entries by US Citizens will have to be done as a group and accompanied by a tour guide which is true of cruise line shore excursions. Most sailings call on Havana for a full day or overnight along with traditional western Caribbean including Key West, Cozumel or Grand Cayman. Ships are also beginning to use the port of Cienfuegos.

Is air travel to Cuba legal?

Yes, but... new rules were issued on November 9, 2017 which eliminated independent "people to people" travel to Cuba. The rules also made it hard for tour operators to do business with any entity that is controlled or run by the Cuban military. Stay tuned on info about "Support of the Cuban People" independent travel in the future.
